

CRAIG CAMPBELL
Project Coordinator, Tribal Colleges and Indian Affairs
American Distance Education Consortium

Mr. Campbell is the Project Coordinator for Tribal Colleges and Indian Affairs at the American Distance Education Consortium (ADEC) located at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. Currently, the main project is the Advanced Internet Satellite Extension Project (AISEP) funded by the National Science Foundation.

He is a Doctoral Candidate in the field of Adult Education at Northern Illinois University, focusing on cultural contexts, community development, and local knowledge production.

Craig was formerly Mathematics Instructor at Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe Community College and has completed two NASA Summer Faculty Fellowships.

Contact Information

C218 – Animal Science Building
Lincoln, NE 68583-0952
402-472-0819
ccampbell4@unl.edu

RANDY ROSS
Consultant
American Distance Education Consortium

Mr. Ross works with ADEC as a consultant on Indian Affairs and AISEP. He has a long dedicated record of service in Native American communities as well as over ten years of federal government service.

Some of Randy's achievements include co-authoring the Benton Foundation report on Native Networking and serving as a board member of Migizi Communications. He was formerly employed at the Northwest Area Foundation, St. Paul, Minnesota, as a Community Liaison/Team Lead, and was a former non-trustee board member of the National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian, Washington D.C.

Randy is an enrolled member, Ponca Tribe of Nebraska.

Contact Information

60 Plato Boulevard E Suite 400
St. Paul, MN 55107
651-263-0119
rross61@msn.com